

upCentric Vertical Cable Sleeve

The upCentric vertical cable sleeve is a versatile and easy-to-use solution for organizing and protecting your cables and cords. Made of high-quality, durable materials, this cable sleeve is designed to withstand wear and tear and keep your cables safe from damage. It's simple to install, with a sleek and slender design to hide cabling from your work station to the floor. Whether you're at home or in the office, the upCentric vertical cable sleeve is an essential tool for managing and organizing your cables and cords.

View Online

Features

- Integrates seamlessly with the upCentric desk and cable management basket
- Protects and conceals cables at your workstation
- Reduces cable clutter
- Zips open/closed for easy access to cables
- Lightweight and easy to install
- Overall length is 47" and is available in silver and black
- Individually packaged with a weighted base, tabletop mounting plate and hardware

Colors

- Silver
- Black

Warranty

10 years*

* Includes labor costs.